

Biographical Information

Name: Stephanie H. Langston

Current Professional Position: Owner & President of Hands on Spanish, Inc. and Instructor of Spanish (and coordinator for online instructors and Spanish language materials training) at Georgia Perimeter College, Newton Campus and Online

Education: M.Ed. in Foreign Language Education, B.A. in Spanish and A.B.J. in Telecommunication Arts, The University of Georgia; also studied at the University of Salamanca, Spain and the Forester Institute in San José, Costa Rica

Professional/Employment Background: Stephanie taught Spanish at the Georgia Institute of Technology and Emory University. She founded Hands on Spanish, Inc. in 1999 to offer customized Spanish programs such as Pharmacy Spanish (clients include Kroger, CVS/Pharmacy, Kaiser Permanente, The University of Georgia's Postgraduate Pharmacy Continuing Education of the College of Pharmacy, the National Pharmacy Technicians Association and CECity.com) and Spanish for the Courts (The Florida College of Advanced Judicial Studies, The Institute for Continuing Judicial Education of Georgia and The State Bar of Georgia). She also offers an online conversational Spanish tutorial (WeBspanol) and a children's program (Uno, Dos, Tres). Uno, Dos, Tres is offered online at www.handsonspanish.com and also has been taught at over 90 metro-Atlanta learning centers, private schools and after-school programs of public schools. Stephanie also lead a General Dynamics team in the curriculum development of the 1000-page "Spanish Language Curriculum for Immigration and Enforcements Agents of the Department of Homeland Security," which is taught to all new agents as a 200-hour mandatory course that must be passed prior to other training. Translation clients include AT&T, Kroger, Comcast Cable, Z-Tel Technologies and Horizon Software International.

Personal: Stephanie and her husband of ten years live in Monroe, Georgia with their 2-year-old son, Emery, adopted from Colombia. They are active in their church in the areas of education, music & worship and missions. They are avid travelers and have been to 40 countries. They relish living near their parents as they prepare to adopt a second child.