Optimizing Outcomes for Older Adults with Type 2 Diabetes

References

Note: This is a comprehensive listing of important publications dealing with diabetes in older adults. Not all of these publications are cited in the activity “Optimizing Outcomes for Older Adults with Type 2 Diabetes.” For the user’s convenience, some citations appear under more than one heading.

General

Optimizing Outcomes for Older Adults with Type 2 Diabetes

References

Optimizing Outcomes for Older Adults with Type 2 Diabetes

References

Cognitive Dysfunction and Dementia

Optimizing Outcomes for Older Adults with Type 2 Diabetes

References

Depression

Optimizing Outcomes for Older Adults with Type 2 Diabetes

References

Falls

Hypoglycemia

Optimizing Outcomes for Older Adults with Type 2 Diabetes

References

Nonpharmacologic Approaches to Diabetes Management

Persistent Pain

Pharmacologic Approaches to Diabetes Management

Scherer Clinical Communications
March 24, 2014
Optimizing Outcomes for Older Adults with Type 2 Diabetes

References

Lipitor (atorvastatin calcium) tablets for oral administration. Prescribing information. New York: Pfizer; October 2012.

Polypharmacy and Other Drug-Related Concerns

American Geriatrics Society. AGS Beers Criteria for potentially inappropriate medication use in older adults. Printable Beers pocket card. Available at:

